

STATE OF MAINE
SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER JB-05-26 (A. 7-14)

REVISED COURT FEES SCHEDULE AND DOCUMENT MANAGEMENT PROCEDURES

Amendment Effective: July 16, 2014

This Order amends JB-05-26 as amended by A. 6-14, signed on May 27, 2014, and effective on June 1, 2014. This amended Order is issued to state clearly in section I(A) that a fee exemption applies to motions for contempt that allege only a failure to pay child support.

In order to promote uniformity of practice, costs, and procedures, the following fees schedule and the following procedures for copying, attestation, and document management are adopted for all Courts in the Maine State Court System. As used in this Schedule, “Clerk” means the Clerk of the Law Court, the Executive Clerk of the Supreme Judicial Court, a Clerk of the Superior Court, a Clerk of the District Court, the Manager of the Maine Judicial Branch Violations Bureau, or a member of such a person’s staff who has been delegated the authority to sign documents on behalf of that person. This Order replaces any previous Fees Schedule, Administrative Order, or Fees and Document Management Procedures.

¹ A motion or stipulation to modify or enforce a child support order may include a request for attorney fees and still be exempt from the post-judgment filing fee. A fee will be charged for a post-judgment motion or stipulation that raises additional issues. For example, a motion or stipulation seeking both a change in visitation and modification of child support requires payment of the fee.

Amended motions or stipulations that would require a fee if filed originally will also require the appropriate filing fee.

² As with a motion to modify or enforce a child support order, a motion for contempt alleging the failure to pay child support may include a request for attorney fees and still be exempt from the motion filing fee. A fee will be charged if the party files a motion for contempt that alleges a basis for contempt in addition to the non-payment of child support or requests relief relating to non-child support issues. For example, if a motion alleges both the non-payment of child support and a failure to follow a visitation schedule, or the motion seeks both to recover unpaid child support and to change a visitation schedule, the filing fee will be charged.

Amended motions that would require a fee if filed originally will also require the appropriate filing fee.

B. Late Payment of Fines

This section, relating to late payment of fines, applies to all fines imposed after December 31, 2003, without regard to the date of the offense or the date of the charge. When a criminal fine or a juvenile court fine is not paid on the date it is imposed, or on the date that the payment is due, if the time for payment is extended by the Court, there shall be a late payment fee assessed, in addition to the amount due on the fine, as follows:

For original fines less than or equal to $100, the Late Payment Fee is:	$ 25.00
For original fines greater than $100 and less than or equal to $500, the Late Payment Fee is:	$ 50.00

⁶ This is an administrative fee.

⁷ This is an administrative fee imposed in addition to the filing fee upon all foreclosure action filings in the State of Maine on or after June 15, 2009. The revenue generated by the fee will be used to fund a Foreclosure Diversion Program as authorized by the 124th Legislature (see P.L. 2009, ch. 402). Although the fee is imposed upon all foreclosure actions regardless of the underlying nature of the action or statutory authority for filing, only certain residential foreclosures will be eligible for inclusion in the Diversion Program. Subsequent orders of the Court will outline the contours and requirements of any pilot projects or state-wide efforts.

For original fines greater than $500, the Late Payment Fee is:	$100.00
---	----------

The amount due on any late payment fee shall be determined by the amount of the fine specified on the face of the judgment, without regard to increases from surcharges or decreases from partial payments. When part of a fine is suspended, the amount due shall be determined by the remaining, unsuspended portion of the fine. A late fee will be calculated separately for each charge on which a fine is imposed that remains unpaid.

II. PAYMENT

The Maine Judicial Branch requires that fees be paid in full at the time a request is made, and a receipt must be issued. Payment must be made in U.S. funds, and may be by cash, credit card, money order, or check, including out-of-state instruments. Foreign checks must be imprinted as “U.S. Funds” and foreign checks not so imprinted will not be accepted.

Payment arrangements for transcripts produced by an Official Court Reporter shall be made directly with the Official Court Reporter. Payment arrangements for transcripts processed through the Office of Transcript Operations shall be made directly with its contractor(s).

A Clerk may refuse to accept payment by check from a person who has previously presented a check that has not been honored by a financial institution or from a person previously convicted of the crime of negotiating a worthless instrument, or if the Clerk has information that indicates there are not sufficient funds available to cover the check. A $20.00 charge shall be assessed for each returned check.

Mail requests for copies or forms will be honored, and, unless a self-addressed stamped envelope is enclosed with the request, a standard $5.00 postage and handling charge will be assessed for each required mailing.

Charge accounts may not be maintained by a Clerk.

When the funds in an escrow account are ordered by the Court to be paid to a person entitled to these funds, the Clerk shall instruct the depository to write a check to “Treasurer, State of Maine” for 5% of the total amount in the account at the time of distribution. This applies only to escrow accounts opened on or after July 1, 1989. For escrow accounts opened prior to July 1, 1989, the Clerk shall instruct the depository to divide in half and distribute the interest between the State of Maine and the person entitled to the funds.

III. EXEMPTIONS FROM FEES OTHER THAN FEES RELATED TO THE PRODUCTION OF TRANSCRIPTS OR AUDIO RECORDINGS

The following Maine entities are exempt from the imposition of the above fees:

- Judicial Branch
- Legislature
- Executive Department Agencies
- Department of Attorney General
- District Attorneys
- Probate Courts
- State Independent Administrative Agencies performing a state-wide function, such as the Maine State Housing Authority and the Finance Authority of Maine
- Guardians ad Litem appointed and paid for by the Court

Also exempt from the imposition of the above fees are:

- Out-of-state official entities that perform a general governmental function such as:
 - ≈ Courts
 - ≈ Department of Health and Human Services or like agencies

The following entities are NOT exempt from the imposition of the above fees:

- Federal Agencies, including military services, except where exempt by federal statutes in which case it would be the agency's responsibility to demonstrate that they have that exemption
- Municipalities
- Other local units of government
- Regional entities
- State chartered entities that do NOT perform a general governmental function, including the University System

Police Departments, defense counsel, or parties to a criminal action are entitled to one copy (attested or nonattested) of any document relating to that action pursuant to M.R. Crim. P. 53. Nonparties are subject to the fees set forth in this Schedule.

Litigants who have been granted in forma pauperis status pursuant to M.R. Civ. P. 91, counsel for those litigants, and any counsel appointed or assigned by the Court are exempt, during the pendency of that action, from payment of fees¹² when the requested copy or service is essential to the conduct of the action.

Copies of documents, attested or not, provided to parties, parties' counsel or authorized representatives, or law enforcement agencies in protection from abuse or protection from harassment actions are provided without charge.

The exemptions set forth in this section do not apply to fees related to the production of transcripts or audio recordings.

IV. STANDARDS FOR DOCUMENT MANAGEMENT

A. Preparation and Signature of Documents

Clerks of Court may sign certificates or documents prepared or completed by parties or counsel, but parties and counsel are responsible for the accuracy of the information contained in the document presented to the Clerk.

¹² This exemption does not apply to fees related to electronic recordings of court proceedings or the production of transcripts provided through the Office of Transcript Operations or its contractor(s) or Official Court Reporters, see I(L), requested by litigants represented by court appointed or assigned counsel or requested by court appointed or court assigned counsel. In such cases, the Maine Commission on Indigent Legal Services is responsible for payment.

B. Retention and Distribution of Documents

Only one original may be prepared and executed of a judgment, order, or other document that has independent legal significance. The original executed document must be retained in the case file. If there is a charge for the preparation of the document set by this Schedule and Procedure, one attested copy is to be provided without additional charge. When the legal equivalent of an original is necessary, for example, for filing in a Registry of Deeds, an attested copy should be provided and the original retained in the file.

This Procedure does not apply to certificates that do not in themselves have a legal significance, but that simply reflect the existence of a filing, event, or other document with that significance that is retained in the court file (i.e., short-form certificate of judgment of divorce; 10 M.R.S. § 3261 certificate; 14 M.R.S. §§ 2401(3)(F), 4455, 6321, 6653 certificates). However, if a Clerk executes such a certificate or document, it should be reflected in the docket. Therefore, a one-page Clerk's certificate would cost $5.00, which is the fee for the Clerk's signature. The attorney or party in this case would receive the original, signed certificate, not an attested copy. However, in the case of a Clerk's certificate that is made a part of the judgment, the original must be retained.

In order to expedite the flow of work between government agencies, Clerks are authorized to accept requests from parties or counsel asking that a document or attested copy be filed with a Registry of Deeds, but only if the request is accompanied by (1) a check payable to the Registry for the appropriate fee for recording, and where the Registry is in a different facility, (2) by a postage paid pre-addressed mailing envelope. The document must indicate that it is to be returned by the Registry to the party, not the Clerk's office.

V. CALCULATION OF COPY FEES

Copy fees are to be charged for copies of all documents, except that each party-of-record is entitled to one nonattested copy of a judgment, decision, or order entered by a judge or a default order entered by a Clerk when the copy is provided in lieu of a notice of docket entry pursuant to M.R. Civ. P. 77(d).

VI. CALCULATION OF ATTESTATION OR EXEMPLIFICATION FEES

Attestation fees and exemplification fees are calculated per attestation and per exemplification and are added to applicable copy fees. Each attested copy, (whether a multiple reproduction of the same document, or one or more copies of different documents) is charged the attestation fee, regardless of the number of pages copied (except where the requestor wants each page separately attested, in which case the fee is charged for each page). The exemplification fee does not include the attestation, and the charges are added together for each document. To exemplify a document, the Exemplification Form CR-040 is used.

Separate documents that are legally part of a larger or legally consolidated document, for example, an Income Withholding Order that is on a separate sheet, but legally a part of a divorce judgment, may either be attested and charged for separately, if requested, or provided as a part of a consolidated document or file. If the copy is provided as a part of a consolidated document or file, it is not charged a separate attestation fee. To attest multiple documents or an entire file, the Attestation Form CR-041 is used.
